

edacity's geekStarter program Final Report Form

On behalf of MindFuel, we would like to congratulate all geekStarter-supported teams and clubs on another successful season. The following report is critical to helping us fully communicate the excellent work of your team and build greater awareness and support for the program across the province.

Incomplete or late submissions may impact future funding decisions for your team.

Notes completing the report

- The reporting period covers your most recent edacity's geekStarter program term activities.
- Please feel free to add extra rows to the provided tables, if needed.
- If you have any questions regarding the report or submission process, please email geekstarter@mindfuel.ca.

Unused funds

Any funds remaining in the award's related account(s) as of the period of support end date will be re-claimed by MindFuel. These funds are considered unused if the account has a credit balance after the end date.

Submit your completed report to MindFuel:
